REPORTS.

SABBATH SCHOOLS.

From the reports of the churches on the work of Sabbath Schools, we find that this important cause has been greatly neglected by the churches of this Association. We regret that this great work is being so neglected, and earnestly urge the churches to be more zealous in this work. There is nothing so beneficial to the young of the country as well conducted Sunday Schools. It takes the idle boys from their roaming sports, and places them under the teaching of God's Holy word. We earnestly recommend that the Baptist parents of this association take a more active part in Sabbath Schools. One of the great drawbacks to the cause, is, the old people stay at home and send their young. They should go and carry them. Your committee recommend that the pastors of the churches of this association preach at least one sermon a year, at their churches, on the influence of Sabbath Schools. We further recommend that every Baptist church in this association organize Sunday Schools and use Baptist Literature, and report their workings to each session of this Association.

A. A. HURST, Chairman.

MISSIONS.

RESOLVED, 1. That we, as members of the Harmony Association of Baptist churches believe that it is our duty to follow the command which Christ gave to his followers, namely: "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature."

2. That in carrying out the above command we believe in missions, Foreign, Home and State.

3. We find $62.25 sent up by the churches for missions. Collections on Sabbath $17.74; total, $79.99.

4, This we trust will do great good, and we encourage the churches in this work; but with great regret we notice from the reading of the church letters the very small amounts that have been given to missions this year by the churches of this association.

5. That we earnestly advise the churches of the importance of this work.

6. We advise that a collection be taken each year in each church for Foreign, Home and State Missions.

7. That we beg of each church in this association to make an honest effort to double the contribution for missions next year.

8. We request that these resolutions be read in each church of this Association at the first conference after they are published in the minutes, and endorsed by them, and they report in their letters to the next session of this body their action thereon. J. C. NEWMAN, C'h'm.

RESOLUTIONS.

TEMPERANCE

Resolved, 1. Having seen the great evil that has been done in the world, by intoxicants of all kinds, we as an association put ourselves on record as opposed to saloons, the making of intoxicated liquors to be used and drank as a beverage.

2. We believe it is the duty of members of Baptist churches to be temperate in all things, even in speech; but especially do we believe it to be their duty to be temperate in the use of intoxicating liquors; that we should abstain from the drinking of intoxicating drinks.

3. That it is the sense of this Association that members of Baptist churches who get drunk, should be considered as walking disorderly, and should be dealt with by the church accordingly.

INDIGENT MINISTERS.

Resolved, That we feel it our duty to aid and to see to the necessities of all indigent ministers in our bounds.

We therefore recommend that the pastors of each church bring this matter before their churches at an early date, and ascertain who, if any such in our bounds, and take up a collection for this purpose, and report and pay over the same to the Executive Committee, to be appropriated for the benefit of such ministers.

MINISTERIAL EDUCATION.

Resolved, That we are in favor aiding in ministerial education; we therefore recommend the churches of this Association to give this matter special attention during the next year, and send up same contribution at next session for this work.

THANKS.

Resolved, 1. That the thanks of this Association be and is hereby tendered the good people of Edwardsville, of all denominations, who have so generously thrown open their doors to us, and who have entertained us so hospitably.

2. That we tender our thanks to the Baptist church at this place, and to each member for individual kindness extended.

3. That we congratulate the Baptist church of Edwardsville on their new building, and hope that it will soon be finished.

CORRESPONDING LETTER.

THE HARMONY BAPTIST ASSOCIATION,

TO SISTER ASSOCIATIONS:

This session of our Association has been very pleasant and harmonious. We invite you to meet with us, by correspondents at our next session, to be held at Poplar Springs church, Haralson county, Georgia, (about 4 miles North of Tallapoosa,) on Saturday before First Sunday in October, 1892. We desire to increase a correspondence with the associations.

Brethren, come and be with us.

F. M. B. STRIPLING, Chairman.

Minutes read and approved.

T. J. BURTON, Clerk.

T. A. HIGDON, Moderator.

CONSTITUTION.

Article 1. This body shall be known as the Harmony Baptist Association.

Art. 2. This Association shall be composed only of Representatives from Baptist Churches, as follows: Each church shall be entitled to three delegates and one additional for every fifty members after the first fifty.

Art. 3. The officers of this body shall be a Moderator, Clerk and Treasurer, elected annually by ballot, by a majority of all the votes cast.

Art. 4. It shall be the duty of the Moderator to preside during the sitting of the body, and preserve order. He shall appoint all committees, unless otherwise directed by the Association. He shall convene the body at the proper time, and announce the business in its order.

Art. 5. It shall be the duty of the Clerk to keep a true record of all the proceedings of the Association, and to perform such other duties as the Association may require.

Art. 6. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to take charge of all Associational funds, and pay them out by order of the body, and make a written report of the same annually.

Art. 7. All members shall have an equal privilege of submitting, explaining and advocating motions.

Art. 8. It is the duty and privilege of all members only to vote upon all questions submitted for decision.

Art. 9. No query shall be investigated or answered, unless it is sent up from a church in proper form, and when in the judgment of the Association it is necessary for the peace and unanimity of the churches.

Art. 10. This Association shall be deemed advisory, and shall treat the churches composing it as independent bodies in all measures of internal government, and shall at no time interfere with their rights.

Art. 11. The object of this body shall be the promotion of the Redeemer's Kingdom, by the maintaining of brotherly love, by mutual consultations for the welfare of the churches, and by efforts in all appropriate ways for the spreading of the knowledge of Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Art. 12. Churches applying for admission may be received upon evidence of their agreeing in faith and practice, with the principles of the Word of God, as understood by this Association, and the Association shall have the right to withdraw from, and disown any of its churches which may seriously and pertinaciously depart from the Gospel.

ART. 13. The churches are expected to report in their annual letters the name of the Church, Postoffice, County, Pastor, Clerk, time of regular preaching, names of delegates, Ordained Ministers, Licentiates, Statistics of Membership, Sunday Schools, Minute Funds, and contributions which may have been made by them during the year, for the different benevolent objects, together with any other particulars tending to exhibit their spiritual condition and labors for the cause of Christ.

ART. 14. This Association when convened shall be governed by a regular and proper decorum.

ART. 15. Each session of this Association shall be opened with an Introductory sermon.

ART. 16. Amendments to this Constitution may be made by a vote of two-thirds of the present at any Annual session.

RULES OF DECORUM.

Rule 1. The Moderator and Clerk of the preceding session shall serve until an election is had.

Rule 2. Correspondents from Sister Associations shall be received and heard—at each sitting.

Rule 3. Visiting brethren of our order, and in good standing, shall be invited to seats at each sitting, and participate in our deliberations.

Rule 4. The report of the business committee, when adopted, shall become the directory for the remainder of the session.

Rule 5. A member rising to speak, shall address the Moderator, but shall not proceed until he shall have been recognized by the Moderator.

Rule 6. No member speaking in debate shall be interrupted unless he depart from the subject or indulge in personal reflections.

Rule 7. No member shall absent himself from the body without leave of the Moderator.

Rule 8. Any member absent at the reading of the Minutes, without leave, shall be so noted.

Rule 9. Any member may appeal from the decision of the Moderator to that of the body.

Rule 10. All motions and resolutions in order shall be entertained, and while under debate no other motion shall be made, except to offer a substitute, to amend, commit, postponed, table or adjourn.

Rule 11. Motions to reconsider, shall only be entertained when made by one who voted in the majority, and when there are as many members present as when originally passed.

Rule 12. The Minutes shall be read and adopted at the close of each session, and signed by the Moderator and Clerk.

Rule 13. The Clerk shall superintend the printing and distributing of the Minutes, and file one copy of each session, to be delivered to his successor, and for his services shall receive reasonable compensation.

Rule 14. These rules may be amended or changed at any session.

ARTICLES OF FAITH.

I. We believe in one only True and Living God, the Father, Word and Holy Ghost, and these three are one, Deut. vi, 4; 1st John v. 7; 2d Cor. xiii, 14; Matt. xxiii, 19.

II. We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the word of God given to us by inspiration of God (2d Tim. iii. 16,) and that the New Testament is the only book of discipline to govern the Church of God; and that Jesus Christ is the head and only lawgiver. Heb. ix, 14-17; Eph. i, 22; Matt. xvii. 5

III. We believe in the doctrine of election, according to the fore knowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth. 1st Peter i, 2-5; 2d Thess. ii, 13.

IV. We believe that all men are sinners by nature, children of wrath, even dead in tresspasses and sin (Eph. ii, 13; Rom. v, 12), and unable to recover themselves from the fallen state they are in by their own ability. Rom. v, 6; John vi, 44; Phil. ii, 13.

V. We believe that sinners are justified in the sight of God only by God's grace, through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. Eph. ii, 8; 1st John i, 5; Rev. i, 5; Rom. v, 1.

VI. We believe in the preservation and final salvation of all God's children. 1st Peter i, 5; John yi, 38-40, and x, 28, 29; 1st John iii, 2; Col. iii, 3, 4.

VII. We believe that Baptism is an ordinance from God, enjoined upon true believers in Jesus Christ only, commanded by Christ to be kept by His Church; and that immersion only is Scriptural Baptism. John i, 6, 33; Matt. xxviii, 19; 1st Cor., xi, 2; Rom. vi 4, 5; Col. ii, 12.

VIII. We believe that the Lord's Supper was instituted by Christ as an ordinance to be observed by His Church till he comes, and that no person has a right to participate in this ordinance only those who have been Scripturally baptized, and sustain an accredited membership in the Church. Matt. xxvi, 26, 27 et seq.; Mark, xvi, 22 et seq.; Acts. ii, 42; 1st Cor. v, 11 et seq.

IX. We believe that the visible Church of God is composed of baptized believers covenanted together to keep the commandments and ordinances of the Lord as He delivered them to us, acknowledging no head nor lawgiver but Christ. Acts ii, 41, 42 and 47, and v, 14, and xviii, 8; 2d Cor. viii, 5; Eph. i, 22, 23; Col. i, 18.

X. We believe in the resurrection of the dead and a general judgement, and that the righteous will enter into eternal life and the wicked will enter into everlasting punishment. Matt. xxv, 46; Acts xxiv, 15, and xvii, 31; Rev. xx, 12 et seq.; 1st Cor. xv, 21 et seq.

XI. We believe that no person has a right to administer the ordinances of the Church, only those who are chosen by the Church and scripturally set apart to that office. Acts vi, 5; xiii, 2, 3.

XII. We believe that all infants that die as such are saved through the atoning merits of Christ, without any works that man can perform. 2 Sam. xii, 23; Matt. xix, 13, 14; Rom. v. 14.

Minutes read and adoped.
